Charles Larry Crews, Jr., et al. v. Rivian Automotive, Inc., et al., Case No. 2:22-cv-01524-JLS-E (C.D. Cal.)

THIS POSTCARD ONLY PROVIDES LIMITED INFORMATION ABOUT THE CLASS ACTION.

Please visit www.RivianSecuritiesLitigation.com, or contact the Administrator by emailing info@RivianSecuritiesLitigation.com or calling (888) 298-2026 for more information.

The Court has certified a class action ("Action") against Rivian Automotive, Inc. ("Rivian"), certain of Rivian's executive officers and directors, and the underwriters that facilitated the offer and sale of Rivian Class A common stock through the company's Initial Public Offering ("IPO") on November 10, 2021 (collectively, "Defendants"). IF YOU ARE A MEMBER OF THE CLASSES DEFINED BELOW, YOUR RIGHTS WILL BE AFFECTED BY THIS CASE, WHICH HAS NOT SETTLED. This notice advises you of basic information about your options. A detailed "long-form notice" is available on the case website, or by calling the number above.

What Has Happened So Far? The Action alleges that Rivian's IPO offering documents (and certain of its post-IPO statements to investors) violated the federal securities laws by making materially false and misleading statements and failing to disclose material facts and risks arising from, among other things, the alleged fact that the bill of materials cost of Rivian's R1T and R1S (together, "R1") electric vehicles far exceeded the sales price at which these vehicles were being offered to customers requiring Rivian to increase R1 retail prices. Defendants dispute the claims asserted and deny any liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. In July 2024, the Court certified two classes and appointed Class Representatives and Class Counsel (Kessler Topaz Meltzer & Check, LLP, 280 King of Prussia Road, Radnor, PA 19087). The Action is ongoing. The Court has not ruled on the merits of Class Representatives' claims or on Defendants' denials or other defenses.

Who Is In The Classes?

* For 1934 Act Claims: All persons and entities who purchased or otherwise acquired Rivian Class A common stock between November 11, 2021, and March 10, 2022, inclusive, and were damaged thereby. The Class excludes those who purchased Rivian Class A common stock at the fixed IPO price.

* For 1933 Act Claims: All persons and entities who purchased or otherwise acquired Rivian Class A common stock between November 10, 2021, and March 10, 2022, inclusive, and were damaged thereby.

As is explained in the long-form notice, certain persons and entities (including Defendants and their families and the officers, directors and affiliates of Rivian at all relevant times) are excluded from the Classes by definition.

What Are My Options? This Action is being litigated and no money has been recovered. If you do nothing, you will remain a Class member, and if there is a future recovery or settlement, you may be eligible for a payment. If you remain a Class member, you will be bound by all Court orders, whether favorable or unfavorable to you, and you may not pursue a lawsuit on your behalf with regard to any issues in the Action.

If you DO NOT want to be a Class member and be legally bound by anything that happens in the Action, you must exclude yourself. To exclude yourself, you must send a letter or email stating that you "request exclusion from the Class in Charles Larry Crews, Jr., et al. v. Rivian Automotive, Inc., et al., Case No. 2:22-cv-01524-JLS-E." Your request must: (i) state the full name, address, and telephone number of the person/entity requesting exclusion, and be signed; and (ii) state the amount of Rivian Class A common stock purchased, acquired and/or sold between November 10, 2021, and March 10, 2022, inclusive, by the person/entity requesting exclusion, as well as the dates and prices of each such purchase, acquisition and/or sale. If you request exclusion via email, an e-signature is acceptable. You must mail/email your exclusion request by no later than March 4, 2025, to: Crews v. Rivian Automotive Securities Litigation, c/o Verita Global, LLC, EXCLUSIONS, P.O. Box 5100, Larkspur, CA 94977-5100 or info@RivianSecuritiesLitigation.com. Defendants retain all of their defenses to individual claims and may seek their dismissal.

Your Other Rights. Class members are represented by Class Counsel. You will not be personally responsible for counsel's fees and expenses. You may also hire your own attorney, at your own expense. If you do, your attorney must file a notice of appearance with the Court by no later than March 4, 2025.

PLEASE KEEP YOUR INVESTMENT RECORDS AND NOTIFY THE ADMINISTRATOR OF ANY CHANGE IN ADDRESS.

Do not contact the Court, Defendants, or their counsel. All questions should be directed to the Administrator or Class Counsel.

This Notice is being issued pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure (“Rule”) 23 and an Order of the United States District Court for the Central District of California (“Court”) to inform you: (i) of a class action lawsuit that is pending in the Court under the above caption (“Action”) against Rivian Automotive, Inc. (“Rivian”), certain of Rivian’s executives and directors,¹ and the underwriters that facilitated the offer and sale of Rivian Class A common stock through the company’s Initial Public Offering (“IPO”) on November 10, 2021² (collectively, “Defendants”); and (ii) that the Action has been certified by the Court to proceed as a class action on behalf of the Classes, as defined in ¶ 1 below.

1. By Order dated July 17, 2024, the Court certified the Action as a class action on behalf of the following Classes:

For 1934 Act Claims: All persons and entities who purchased or otherwise acquired Rivian Class A common stock between November 11, 2021, and March 10, 2022, inclusive, and were damaged thereby. The Class excludes those who purchased Rivian Class A common stock at the fixed IPO price.

² Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC, Goldman Sachs & Co., LLC, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, Barclays Capital Inc., Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., Allen & Company LLC, BofA Securities, Inc., Mizuho Securities USA LLC, Wells Fargo Securities, LLC, Nomura Securities International, Inc., Piper Sandler & Co., RBC Capital Markets, LLC, Robert W. Baird & Co. Inc., Wedbush Securities Inc., Academy Securities, Inc., Blaylock Van, LLC, Cabrera Capital Markets LLC, C.L. King & Associates, Inc., Loop Capital Markets LLC, Samuel A. Ramirez & Co., Inc., Siebert Williams Shank & Co., LLC, and Tigress Financial Partners LLC.

For 1933 Act Claims: All persons and entities who purchased or otherwise acquired Rivian Class A common stock between November 10, 2021, and March 10, 2022, inclusive, and were damaged thereby.

Both Classes exclude Defendants and their families, the officers, directors, and affiliates of Defendants, at all relevant times, members of their immediate families and their legal representatives, heirs, successors, or assigns, and any entity in which Defendants have or had a controlling interest.

2. This Notice is directed to members of the Classes (also referred to herein as the “Class”). If you are a member of the Class, your rights will be affected by the Action. If you do not meet the Class definition, this Notice does not apply to you. If you are uncertain whether you are a member of the Class, please contact Class Counsel listed in ¶ 25 below, or your own attorney.

3. This Notice is not an admission by Defendants or an expression of any opinion by the Court as to the merits of the Action, nor a finding by the Court that the claims asserted by Class Representatives³ in the Action are valid. This Notice is intended solely to inform you of the pendency of the Action and of your rights concerning the Action, including the right to request exclusion from the Class if you are a member of the Class. There is no judgment, settlement, or monetary recovery at this time, and there is no assurance that a judgment in favor of the Class will be granted or that the Court will award the Class a monetary recovery. Defendants have denied Class Representatives’ claims, and contend that they are not liable for the harm alleged by Class Representatives.

4. The Class definition may be subject to change by the Court pursuant to Rule 23.

DESCRIPTION AND STATUS OF THE LAWSUIT

5. This is a securities class action against Defendants for alleged violations of the federal securities laws. Class Representatives seek damages under Sections 11, 12(a)(2), and 15 of the Securities Act of 1933 (“1933 Act”) and Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“1934 Act”).

6. The Action alleges that Rivian’s IPO offering documents (and certain of its post-IPO statements to investors during an earnings call and filing with the U.S. Securities Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on December 17, 2021) violated the federal securities laws by making materially false and misleading statements and failing to disclose material facts and risks arising from, among other things, the alleged fact that the bill of materials cost of Rivian’s R1S and R1T (together, “R1”) electric vehicles far exceeded the sales price at which these vehicles were being offered to customers requiring Rivian to increase R1 retail prices. Please note that this Notice does not describe all claims and defenses asserted by the parties. The section entitled “Where You Can Find Additional Information” describes the process by which you can obtain additional information about this Action, including the claims and defenses asserted.

7. On March 7, 2022, a class action complaint was filed against Rivian, certain of Rivian’s executive officers and directors, and the underwriters that facilitated Rivian’s IPO. The complaint asserted claims pursuant to Section 11 of the 1933 Act on behalf of purchasers of Rivian Class A common stock traceable to the IPO. Thereafter, two substantially similar cases were filed against the same defendants asserting claims under Sections 11 and 15 of the 1933 Act as well as Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the 1934 Act, and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder by the SEC.

8. On July 1, 2022, the Court consolidated the three related cases, appointed Sjunde AP-Fonden as Lead Plaintiff pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and appointed Lead Plaintiff’s selection of counsel, Kessler Topaz Meltzer & Check, LLP as lead counsel and Larson LLP as local counsel for the putative class.

³ The Court has appointed Sjunde AP-Fonden and James Stephen Muhl as the representatives for the Class.

9. On July 22, 2022, Lead Plaintiff and additional plaintiff James Stephen Muhl (together, “Plaintiffs”) filed the Consolidated Complaint for Violations of the Federal Securities Laws (“Consolidated Complaint”) against Defendants, alleging violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the 1934 Act, and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, and Sections 11, 12(a)(2), and 15 of the 1933 Act. Defendants moved to dismiss the Consolidated Complaint on August 29, 2022. Plaintiffs opposed Defendants’ motions to dismiss on September 12, 2022, and Defendants filed replies in support of their motions on September 19, 2022.

10. On February 16, 2023, the Court granted Defendants’ motions to dismiss in their entirety. Plaintiffs were granted leave to amend.

11. On March 2, 2023, Plaintiffs filed their Amended Consolidated Complaint for Violations of the Federal Securities Laws (“Amended Complaint”), alleging violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the 1934 Act, and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, and Sections 11, 12(a)(2), and 15 of the 1933 Act. Defendants moved to dismiss the Amended Complaint on March 16, 2023. Plaintiffs opposed Defendants’ motions to dismiss on April 14, 2023, and Defendants filed replies in support of their motions on April 21, 2023.

12. Following a hearing on the motions, the Court denied Defendants’ motions to dismiss the Amended Complaint in their entirety by Order dated July 3, 2023. The Amended Complaint is the operative complaint in this Action.

13. On August 7, 2023, Defendants answered the Amended Complaint, denying all claims and wrongdoing asserted as well as any liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Amended Complaint. Defendants also asserted several affirmative defenses. Thereafter, the parties pursued discovery concerning their respective claims and defenses.

14. On December 1, 2023, Plaintiffs filed a motion for class certification (“Motion to Certify”). Plaintiffs sought to certify a class consisting of all persons and entities who purchased or otherwise acquired Rivian Class A common stock between November 10, 2021 and March 10, 2022, inclusive, and were damaged thereby. Defendants opposed Plaintiffs’ Motion to Certify on February 29, 2024. On April 19, 2024, Plaintiffs filed a reply in support of their Motion to Certify. Certain Defendants also filed a sur-reply in further opposition to the Motion to Certify.

15. By Order dated July 17, 2024 (“Class Certification Order”), the Court certified the two Classes described in ¶ 1 above. In addition, by the Class Certification Order, the Court appointed Plaintiffs Sjunde AP-Fonden and James Stephen Muhl as Class Representatives, Kessler Topaz Meltzer & Check, LLP as Class Counsel, and Larson LLP as Liaison Counsel for the Class.

16. The Action is ongoing, and the parties are currently conducting fact discovery. A trial date has not yet been set.

17. No court has made a ruling on the merits of Class Representatives’ allegations or on Defendants’ denials and defenses. By certifying the Classes and ordering the issuance of this Notice, the Court is not expressing an opinion as to the merits of Class Representatives’ allegations or of Defendants’ denials or defenses.

YOUR RIGHTS AS A CLASS MEMBER

18. A class action is a type of lawsuit in which one or several individuals or entities prosecute claims on behalf of all members of a group of similarly situated persons and entities to obtain monetary or other relief for the benefit of the entire group. Class actions avoid the necessity of each member of a class having to file his, her, or its own separate lawsuit to obtain relief. Class actions are used to decide legal and factual issues that are common to all members of a class.

19. If you are a member of the Class, you have the right to decide whether to remain a member of the Class. If you are a member of the Class and wish to be excluded from the Class, you must request exclusion in accordance with the procedures set forth in ¶ 21 below. If you want to remain a member of the Class, you do not need to do anything at this time other than to retain your documentation reflecting your transactions and holdings in Rivian Class A common stock during the Class Period as discussed below in ¶ 20. Your decision is important for the following reasons:

a. If you choose to remain a member of the Class, you will be bound by all past, present, and future orders and judgments in the Action, whether favorable or unfavorable to you. If any money is awarded to the Class, either through a settlement with Defendants or a judgment of the Court after a trial and appeals, you may be eligible to receive a share of that award. However, if you remain a member of the Class, you may not pursue a lawsuit on your own behalf with regard to any of the issues in the Action. Pursuant to Rule 23(e)(4), it is within the Court's discretion whether to allow a second opportunity to request exclusion from the Class if there is a settlement. Please note that if you remain a member of the Class, you will not be personally responsible for Class Counsel's or Liaison Counsel's attorneys' fees or costs. Class Counsel and Liaison Counsel have agreed to represent the Class on a contingent fee basis, which means that they will be awarded fees and costs, as approved by the Court, only if they succeed in obtaining a recovery from one or more Defendants. Any attorneys' fees and costs for Class Counsel and Liaison Counsel will be awarded by the Court from the settlement or judgment, if any, obtained on behalf of the Class. As a member of the Class, you will be represented by Class Counsel and Liaison Counsel. Alternatively, you may remain a member of the Class and elect to be represented by counsel of your own choosing. If you do retain separate counsel, you will be responsible for that attorney's fees and expenses and that attorney must enter an appearance on your behalf by filing a Notice of Appearance with the Court and mailing it to Class Counsel at the address set forth in ¶ 25 below on or before March 4, 2025.

b. If you choose to be excluded from the Class, you will not be bound by any orders or judgments in this Action, nor will you be eligible to share in any recovery that might be obtained in this Action. You will retain any right you have to individually pursue any legal rights that you may have against any Defendants with respect to the claims asserted in the Action and Defendants retain all of their defenses to your claims. Please note, if you decide to exclude yourself from the Class, you may be time-barred from asserting all or a portion of the claims covered by the Action. Class Counsel offers no advice and no opinion on whether you will be able to maintain such claims. Please refer to ¶¶ 21-24 below if you would like to request exclusion from the Class.

20. Members of the Class will be eligible to participate in any recovery that might be obtained in the Action. While this Notice is not intended to suggest any likelihood that Class Representatives or members of the Class will obtain any recovery, should there be a recovery, members of the Class will be required to support their requests to participate in the distribution of the recovery by demonstrating their membership in the Class and documenting their purchases, acquisitions and sales of Rivian Class A common stock during the Class Period, and their resulting damages. For this reason, please be sure to keep all records of your transactions and holdings in Rivian Class A common stock during the Class Period. DO NOT mail them to Class Counsel or the Administrator at this time.

HOW TO BE EXCLUDED FROM THE CLASS

21. To exclude yourself from the Class, you must send a letter or an email stating that you "request exclusion from the Class in Charles Larry Crews, Jr., et al. v. Rivian Automotive, Inc., et al., Case No. 2:22-cv-01524-JLS-E." Your request must state your full name, address, and telephone number, and you must sign it. If you are signing on behalf of a Class member (such as an estate, corporation, or partnership), please indicate your full name and the basis of your authority to act on behalf of the Class member, and provide proof of such authority. If you request exclusion via email, an e-signature is acceptable. Your request for exclusion must also state the amount of Rivian Class A common stock purchased, acquired and/or sold during the relevant time period, as well as the dates and prices of each such purchase, acquisition and/or sale. You must mail or email your exclusion request, by no later than March 4, 2025, to:

22. You cannot exclude yourself from the Class by telephone. Requests for exclusion that do not comply with the above requirements will be invalid, unless otherwise accepted by the Court, subject to any objections of the parties to be resolved by the Court.

23. Do not request exclusion if you wish to participate in the Action as a member of the Class.

24. If you properly request exclusion from the Class, you will not be bound by any orders or judgments in the Action, but you also will not be eligible to share in any recovery that might be obtained in the Action. If you properly request exclusion from the Class, you may be entitled to pursue an individual lawsuit, claim, or remedy, if available, which you may have, at your own expense. Please note: if you decide to exclude yourself from the Class, you may be time-barred from asserting all or a portion of the claims covered by the Action. Class Counsel offers no advice and no opinion on whether you will be able to maintain such claims.

Ad Revenue Forecast to Top $1 Trillion in 2024

GroupM, a WPP unit, previously forecast global ad spending would hit $1 trillion in 2025.

BY MEGAN GRAHAM

Global advertising spending will surpass $1 trillion in 2024, one year earlier than previously expected, according to a forecast from media investment group GroupM.

GroupM, a unit of advertising giant WPP, had forecast in June that global ad spending would hit $1 trillion in 2025. That, too, marked an acceleration from an earlier prediction that it would reach $1 trillion in 2026.

The new forecast projects that global ad revenue will increase 9.5% over the course of 2024, up from its previous estimate of 7.8%, as major ad sellers including Alphabet's Google, Meta Platforms, ByteDance and Amazon.com have seen significant gains. That would mean advertising grew at a faster clip than in 2023, when it increased 8.4%.

In another new forecast, media investment firm Magna said ad revenue will reach $933 billion in 2024, up 10.3% over 2023.

Some of the growth reflects packaged-goods companies' reallocation of budgets from trade marketing agreements that aren't considered "advertising," supporting tactics such as in-store displays, to digital ads on so-called retail media networks, according to Magna, part of Interpublic Group's IPG Mediabrands.

U.S. ad revenue, excluding political advertising, will grow 9% in 2024 to $379 billion, GroupM said, and 7% in 2025.

Many American consumers are continuing to spend, especially through e-commerce platforms such as those operated by retailers Amazon and Walmart, despite the higher cost of borrowing in the U.S. and cautious guidance from some retailers, GroupM said.

The tariffs on imports that President-elect Donald Trump proposed could affect the advertising business in the coming years, though it's unclear in which direction, according to the forecast, which was written by Kate Scott-Dawkins, GroupM's global president of business intelligence.

If companies in the U.S. were to face less competition from international peers, they might decide to devote smaller shares of revenue to advertising, the report said. On the other hand, they could increase advertising to grow market share among a smaller set of domestic competitors.

The union contract being negotiated is for Amazon's delivery drivers and warehouse workers.

Amazon Faces Deadline For Union-Bargaining Dates

BY SABELA OJEA

The International Brotherhood of Teamsters said it is giving Amazon.com a deadline of Dec. 15 to agree to bargaining dates to negotiate a union contract for its delivery drivers and warehouse workers.

Teamsters, one of America's largest labor unions, on Friday accused Amazon of breaking the law and said it must commit to come to the table and bargain a contract with its workers.

"Amazon has a legal obligation to recognize the Teamsters and to start negotiating," said Teamsters General

President Sean M. O'Brien.

Amazon said the most recent round of protests haven't affected its operations, adding that the union doesn't represent as many Amazon employees and drivers as it claims.

"This is another attempt to push a false narrative about the independent small businesses who deliver on our behalf," Amazon representative Eileen Hards said.

The union's push comes about three months after Amazon announced the investment of about $2 billion toward the drivers that deliver its packages following union-organizing activity among such workers.

The money was expected to result in average national pay for drivers delivering Amazon parcels to reach nearly $22 an hour, a 7% increase from last year.

Teamsters led strikes of Amazon workers across the U.S., focusing part of its efforts on drivers. The Amazon Labor Union, a labor group that successfully unionized Amazon employees at a warehouse in New York, recently voted to join the Teamsters.

The International Brotherhood of Teamsters represents 1.3 million employees in the U.S., Canada, and Puerto Rico.

Omnicom, Interpublic Near Tie-Up certain positions in the combined company. Omnicom and Publicis couldn't even agree on which company would be the acquirer, The Wall Street Journal reported.

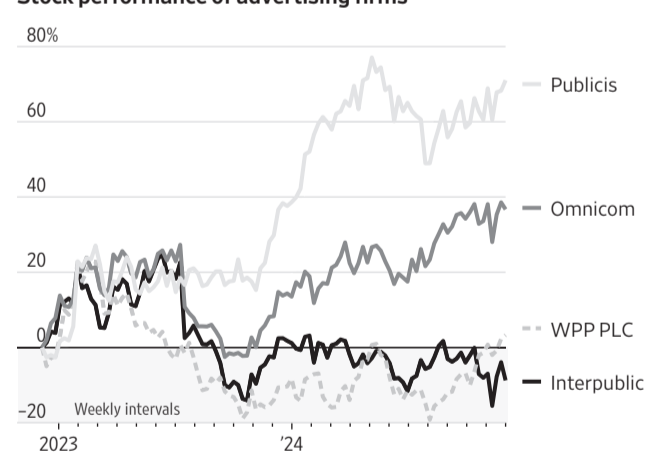

A merger could help Omnicom and Interpublic become better equipped to deal with an industry increasingly driven by technology, data and artificial intelligence. Ad companies are working to stave off competition from tech companies such as Alphabet's Google and Meta Platforms that are using AI to drive deeper into the business.

Generative AI threatens to disrupt how agencies get paid and could potentially diminish demand for copywriters, graphic designers and the ad buyers, who decide where to place ads to target the right audiences.

Research firm Forrester said last year that automation could eliminate some 33,000 jobs, or almost 8% of the workforce, at ad agencies by 2030, with various forms of AI being responsible for a significant portion of these losses.

Interpublic and WPP are struggling to keep pace with rival Publicis, which adapted faster to the technological shifts that reshaped how brands connect with consumers. The Paris-based firm has spent billions on buying data and e-commerce companies. It has also targeted companies that specialize in digital transformation advisory work to better position it against consulting firms with a growing presence in the advertising and marketing business.

The approach has led to a hot streak of winning new business from companies including Pfizer, Hershey, Lego and media and entertainment giant Sky. It has also helped make Publicis the most valuable company in the sector, with a nearly $28 billion market cap.

Omnicom has mainly stuck to smaller deals and building up some tech offerings organically. Earlier this year, though, it signaled a change in its approach and shelled out $835 million for e-commerce company Flywheel, its largest deal to date.

Interpublic has trailed its rivals, losing business from big clients such as Pfizer, Verizon, Spotify, and BMW. It most recently lost the bulk of its most lucrative account, Amazon ad buying assignment, which was split between Omnicom and WPP.

Krakowsky has been actively shopping Interpublic and parts of the conglomerate for more than a year and talking to a range of parties, including private-equity firms Apollo and KKR, according to people familiar with the talks. The company has also enlisted McKinsey to help with a restructuring and cost-cutting initiative, according to people familiar with the matter.

Interpublic has sold off some creative and underperforming agencies, so it can invest more in technology and build a larger practice in so-called principal buying, a high-margin business in which agencies buy ad inventory and take ownership of the ad space, then resell it to brands. Traditionally, the companies would buy ad time and space on behalf of a brand, acting as an agent for the advertiser. Both Publicis and Omnicom have thriving practices in this area.

A deal between Interpublic and Omnicom would likely face government scrutiny, as the combined company would be a dominating force in the ad-buying space. Global ad spending is expected to top $1.03 trillion, excluding political advertising, according to GroupM, the ad buying arm of WPP.
